IT'S PATH TO THE PAC TIME.

With every minute, we get closer to our beloved Rams tearing it up in the Pac-12 in 2026. A top academic conference, this move will elevate the prominence of our university so the world can see what we already know. A top athletic conference, this move will garner greater visibility for recruiting top talent on and off the field.

» Increased national opportunities and exposure for our university
» Boosts our profile allowing academics, athletics and research to shine
» Elevates our academic prestige
» Creates enhanced access to the College Football Playoff and Championship

"This move elevates CSU in a way which benefits all our students, bolsters our core mission, and strengthens our reputation for academic and research excellence. CSU is honored to be among the universities asked to help carry on the history and tradition of the Pac-12 as a highly competitive conference with some of the nation's leading research institutions."
- Amy Parsons | Colorado State President

"This moment has been a long time coming. Our students, faculty, staff, alumni, donors and fans are hungry for this move and are going to love what comes next as CSU charts a transformational new course as a member of the Pac-12."
- John Weber | Colorado State Director of Athletics

CREDENTIALS
To request credentials, submit a request at CSURams.com/FootballCredentials. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved.

Credentials will be screened and issued on a priority basis, with those covering Colorado State and the visiting team on a regular basis receiving top priority. Requests for credentials will be reviewed on a case-by-case, year-by-year basis.

The Colorado State Athletics Communications office has the final authority on whether any individuals from any organization will be issued media credentials.

Spouses, dates, equipment carriers and non-working members of the media are restricted from the press box, sidelines and interview areas. Any abuse of a credential to a Colorado State athletic event will result in the immediate removal of the media member from the event and may result in the agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of the season.

Credentials are issued to the individual.

WILL CALL
Media Will Call is located at the ticket office on the northwest side of the stadium. The window will open 2-hours prior to game time and approved media will need to have a valid ID to be issued their credential.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
To reach the press box, media members should enter through the "Staff/Media" entrance (south of the Premium Entrance on the west side of the stadium). The main press box (writing press/radio crews) is located on the 6th floor. Photographers should also enter through "Staff/Media" entrance for the photo work room located on the field level just inside the southwest tunnel (visitor tunnel/locker room).

MEDIA/STAFF ELEVATOR
An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level, first floor, and sixth floor press box. However, this elevator is also used by food and beverage staff. The elevator is also held for coaches of the visiting team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

FIELD & LOCKER ROOM ACCESS
Photographers are allowed access to the playing field at only two points throughout the course of the event: when the Rams enter the field immediately prior to kickoff and immediately following the game.
Colorado State's locker room is closed at all times.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE
Post-game press conferences are held in the field level media room which can be accessed via the elevator or stairwell.

After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Jay Norvell and select players will be available to the media. Post-game video is available by request.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE
Each Monday during the season, with the exception of the bye week, head coach Jay Norvell holds his weekly press conference beginning at Noon. Video will be available of the full availability courtesy of Colorado State Athletics.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of Colorado State Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS
Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the team area or they will be escorted from the stadium. This includes during pre-game activities. Photographers are required to kneel in the end zone areas.

RECRUITS
Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

PRACTICES
During the regular season, practices are open for the stretch and individual portions of Tuesday and Wednesday practices, generally the first 30-45 minutes. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. When attending practice, please contact Jeff Schmidt or Matt Brumley to RSVP a day prior.

RAMS SPORTS PROPERTIES | LEARFIELD

RAMS SPORTS PROPERTIES

Rams Sports Properties is a property of LEARFIELD and the dedicated multimedia rights holder representing Colorado State University Athletics. In complete collaboration with the University, this local team is committed to extending the Rams' brand affinity to businesses and corporations of all sizes looking to align with the university's loyal and passionate fan base. Rams Sports Properties manages all aspects of the multimedia rights relationship, providing corporate partners both traditional and new media opportunities through venue signage; digital engagement; event sponsorships and promotion; NIL partnership and content; game day hospitality and luxury seating as well as radio game broadcasts and auxiliary programming across the statewide Rams Radio Network.

General Manager Ben Lucas, entering his 14th season with LEARFIELD and 10th with Colorado State, spearheads operations and works closely with the entire athletics administration. LEARFIELD has placed a great emphasis on developing trusted, long-term relationships with some of the most revered institutions and associations in the world of college athletics managing multimedia rights for prominent universities in all the major athletic conferences. The company also partners with NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) to present the Learfield Directors' Cup, which annually recognizes the top overall collegiate programs in the country.

Colorado State, on a weekly basis, reaches hundres of thousands of television homes throughout the region and nation. Eight area television stations and several radio outlets along the Front Range come to campus to interview and feature CSU's student-athletes and coaches. LEARFIELD is the national leader in collegiate sports marketing and serves as the exclusive rights holder for Colorado State Athletics.

RAM FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

The Voice of the Rams, Brian Roth, and former Ram, Ricky Brewer, alongside reporters Marty Cesario and Kevin McGlue bring Ram fans all the action every game day, home and away.

Roth, who also serves as the Director of Broadcasting, has served as the lead play-by-play broadcaster for Colorado State Football over two stints, 2010-12 and since 2016, and his relationship with the broadcast team extends back to 2000-01 when he began as the announcer for women's basketball. Roth's association on the football broadcasts began in 2001 as the sideline reporter before moving into the booth as a color commentator in 2007. In total, Roth has been on the air for close to 300 games and has called the action for nearly half of those.

A native of Aurora, Roth is a 1993 graduate of Smoky Hill High School and 1998 graduate of another in-state university. Roth is also a regular contributor to Colorado State's RamWire storytelling arm with weekly podcasts devoted to the coverage of CSU Athletics. He is married to the former Corinne Hofstetter, a two-time Mountain West champion in the 200-yard fly as a CSU swimmer in 2003-04. They have three children, twins Trenton and Juliette, and Taylor.

Former Ram, Ricky Brewer enters his fourth season with the broadcast crew as the analyst. An all-conference linebacker for the Rams from 2006-10, Brewer was one of five permanent team captains in 2010 and currently is the princial of Ute Meadows Elementary School in Littleton. The Denver native got his first action calling Rams games alongside Roth and the retired Mark Driscoll during the 2021 Border War and also during the 2022 Green vs. Gold Spring game.

Cesario, an alum of Colorado State University, has been a member of the broadcast team since 2011 as the sideline reporter and host of the Rams' pre-game tailgate show. A veteran sports broadcaster with experience calling Colorado High School Athletic Association events since 2001, as well as ESPN bowl games since 2010, Cesario is a regular face and voice across the state in the broadcasting world.

McGlue returns to the sideline and will add his insights for home and road games through the first half of the season. With over two decades of experience calling Colorado State games, McGlue's perspective adds just another layer to the team's extensive coverage. McGlue's roots in northern Colorado run deep as he is the Vice President for the Colorado Eagles (Avalanche affiliate / AHL) and The Voice of the Eagles since the 2009-10 season.

COLORADO STATE SPORTS NETWORK

The Colorado State Sports Network from LEARFIELD is your home for all of the excitement of Colorado State Football. Week after week, Colorado State Sports Network's complete coverage of the Rams provides CSU fans with everything they need to know about Colorado State Athletics. With nearly 20 radio affiliates across the Front Range and beyond, fans across the Centennial State can listen to Colorado State Football.

Fans outside the overage area will be able to listen to Colorado State Football games live on the Varsity Network App or on SiriusXM Radio.

GAME DAY BROADCAST

Two-Hours Prior: The Colorado State Sports Network begins every game day two (2) hours prior to kickoff with Mary Cesario leading the coverage. The show will feature Colorado State head coach Jay Norvell along with other guests interviews.

Postgame: Following the game, the Colorado State Sports Network will have a 60-minute show where the crew will breakdown the result and hear from inside the locker room with head coach Jay Norvell and select players.

COLORADO STATE INSIDER PODCAST

Each week during the athletic calendar, Brain Roth hosts the official Colorado State Insider Podcast with interviews with coaches, game breakdowns and analysis from the Colorado State Radio Network crew. The comprehensive coverage is updated regularly and can be found on all major platforms or at CSURams.com/podcasts

THE JAY NORVELL RADIO SHOW

Each week during the season, head coach Jay Norvell joins The Voice of the Rams Brian Roth for a one-hour live radio show from C.B. & Potts at Collindale Golf Course, previewing the upcoming game, going over the previous week and giving fans an inside look at the Colorado State football program.

Norvell and Roth will be joined by special guests, including assistant coaches and players, throughout the season to give fans a look at their lives and stories away from football.

The live show is broadcast weekly on KARS 102.9 FM in Fort Collins and on select affiliates on the Colorado State Radio Network.

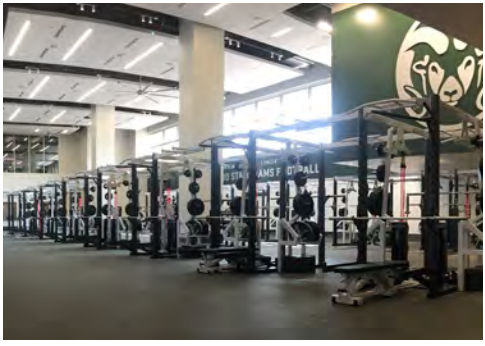
While the fan-side features of Canvas Stadium get the most attention from fans, media, and spectators of all ages, the interior section of the stadium provides Colorado State football players state-of-the-art facilities that rival any found in on-campus stadiums across the country.



Inside Canvas Stadium, Ram student-athletes have access to their locker room, training room facilities, strength and conditioning facilities, the fuel and nutrition center as well as the equipment room and team meeting spaces. Team meals are also served throughout the year inside the facility.

Features:

» Weight Room: 9,100-square-foot weight room with accessibility and views in from the player and recruit lounges and the football administration offices

» Sports Medicine: Offices, taping area, nutrition area and hydrotherapy space complete with four plunge pools

» Meeting Rooms: 150 seat theater-style team meeting room with position meeting rooms in the same hallway

» Player/Recruit Lounge: 3,700 square feet of custom space provides student-athletes space to gather

Also established in 2009 was the Indoor Practice Facility which allows the team to practice and train in an additional facility, especially in the spring during individual and small group work.

Features:

» A 70-yard synthetic-turf football field

» Large gymnasium for basketball and volleyball

» Utilized for training by all 16 varsity sports, and includes a four-lane, 70 meter track

» Retractable netting for batting cages and golf workouts

Student-Athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them.

That's why, in 2009, the Anderson Academic Center was completed, offering Ram student-athletes a first-class academic facility.

Student-Athlete Support Services offers academic support through course-specific tutoring to provide greater understanding and retention of course content among the student-athletes.

Features:

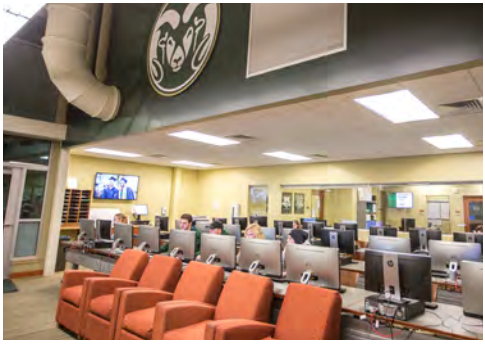
» A computer lab with more than 30 workstations

» Five private tutorial rooms and large study areas

» Seven full-time academic coordinators to assist student-athletes in their studies

In the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) report (2023-24), nine programs achieved a perfect 1,000 single-year APR, and overall, the 989 average APR for the department marked the eighth consecutive report over 985.

Student-Athlete Support Service's mission is to holistically develop student-athletes on their path to graduation, and prepare them to become productive members of a global society.



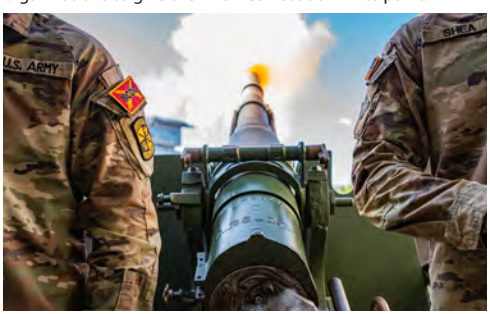
THE AGGIE "A"

The prominent white "A" displayed on the foothills overlooking the old Hughes Stadium site is the second-oldest ongoing tradition associated with Colorado State University.

The "A" evolved after World War I when a trend began among colleges to display the school insignia on a hill near campus. At a special assembly on Dec. 4, 1923, the students of State Agricultural College agreed it was time to erect such an emblem. A group of military volunteers formed the "A" Club and donated vehicles for transporting supplies, and female students provided food for the workers.

The college declared Dec. 12 a special holiday, and students worked from that morning until mid-afternoon to form the "A." One small detail was missing: The school didn't own the land on which the insignia sat. The College and Ag Board members met with landowner R.G. Maxwell and negotiated a long-term lease for the sum of $1. The following September, students lengthened and widened the "A" to its present size of 450 feet from top to bottom, and 210 feet across at the bottom. For many years the freshman class carried out the annual tradition of whitewashing the "A."

Today, the "A" is an official landmark. Early each fall, freshman football players join forces with several other campus organizations to give the "A" a fresh coat of white paint.



THE CANNON

Since 1920, military members from the institution have fired the deafening 75 mm cannon "Comatose," an intimidating exclamation point to opponents which just allowed a Rams touchdown, field goal or PAT. Fired today by CSU's Army ROTC, it is the oldest continuous tradition associated with CSU Athletics.

At Canvas Stadium, the cannon is located at field level in the southeast corner. The cannon was completely refurbished in Denver in the summer of 2018.

CAM THE RAM

The official mascot or Animal Ambassador of Colorado State is CAM the Ram, whose name symbolizes CSU's history - an acronym for Colorado Agricultural & Mechanical College, the institution's former name. CAM has its own corps of approximately 20 students from all majors and colleges, known as the 'Ram Handlers' who volunteer 100% of their time to training and care in addition to escorting CAM to events.

TRAVELING TROPHIES

Colorado State football enjoys fierce rivalries with three front-range schools. The Rams and their foes battle for a trio of traveling trophies: The Centennial Cup (Colorado), the Ram-Falcon Trophy (Air Force) and the Bronze Boot (Wyoming).

THE BRONZE BOOT

Colorado State's most important traveling trophy is the Bronze Boot. Created in 1968 from an actual leather boot worn by Captain Dan Romero in the Vietnam War, The Boot is fiercely guarded by both Colorado State and Wyoming.

Each year leading up to the Wyoming-Colorado State game, the game ball is carried on foot in a shuttle relay by the ROTC detachment of the visiting team to the Wyoming-Colorado state border, where the home team's ROTC detachment receives it and runs the game ball to the stadium hosting the game.

Prior to the 2021 season, school officials - seeing the need for major refurbishment - had The Boot refinished. The effort was led by Colorado State which had The Boot's bronze coating strengthened by The Bronzery in Escondido, Calif., and the base refinished by Alpine Cabinets, owned by CSU alums, in nearby Timnath.

KEY

In an attempt to moderinze our roster to provide more clarity about the makeup of the Rams, we have added three columns to the traditional layout of a roster. The key for those additions:

RM: Remaining Years (Including Current Season) | : Indicates a COVID-19 Year | 1st: First Semester in College | CSU: First Season at CSU

JAY NORVELL

HEAD COACH | FOURTH SEASON

Jay Norvell enters his fourth season at the helm of the Colorado State program after he was named the 24th head coach in program history on Monday, Dec. 6, 2021.

Norvell, who led the Nevada Wolf Pack to four bowl games in five seasons (2017-21) as head coach prior to coming to Fort Collins, has an offensive-coaching acumen which is unquestioned after he built a conference title contender at Nevada. Former Wolf Pack quarterback Carson Strong was a two-time MW Offensive Player of the Year as Nevada led the MW in passing offense in 2021 at 365.8 yards per game. The Wolf Pack posted four-consecutive winning seasons under Norvell including a pair of bowl wins in 2018 (Arizona) and 2020 (Famous Idaho Potato).

In 2024, Norvell guided CSU back to the postseason, reaching a bowl game for the first time since 2017, with the Rams facing Miami (Ohio) in the Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl. The team reached the eight-win mark for the first time since 2014, and the football team set an attendance record with an average of 33,082 as the Rams hosted seven home games for the first time in history.

Norvell's first season in Fort Collins may not have seen growth in the win-loss column from the team he inherited, but the cultural progress under Norvell's direction was undeniable.

The Rams posted a 3-9 record in his first season, a campaign which opened against CFP semifinalist Michigan and was filled with seven teams which advanced to the postseason. Starting three different quarterbacks during the season (all of whom were redshirt or true freshmen), the Rams showed signs of improvement on offense as the season progressed, averaging 247.3 yards of total offense the first half, improving to 324.1 the second half.

The same trend showed on defense, with the Rams going from 400.8 yards allowed to 309.1. Seven players were named All-Mountain West, including first-team selections for wideout Tory Horton and safety Jack Howell. Quarterback Clay Millen and defensive tackle Grady Kelly were named freshmen All-America by Pro Football Network.

Using his time at Nevada as the blueprint, Norvell set out to build the Colorado State program through recruiting ahead of the 2023 season. That plan resulted in the highest-rated recruiting classes in program history based on 247Sports' Composite rankings and the second highest in the Mountain West by the same metric.

The 2023 season saw improvement in nearly every category, including the win column with a 5-7 mark. Scoring also doubled from the season prior, from 13.17 points per game to 26.08 as redshirt freshman Braydon Fowler-Nicolosi started under center in week two and finished the season leading the league in total offense with 3,433 yards.

The season produced a program first, a victory over Boise State after a last-second Hail Mary was caught by tight end Dallin Holker in the end zone. CSU scored 21 points in the final 4:02 of the game to secure the first-ever victory.

The Rams looked to return to bowl eligibility, but came up short, suffering losses after leading or tied with less than a minute left in three games, including the season finale at Hawaii.

The Rams earned 12 All-Mountain West awards, highlighted by Mohamed Kamara's selection as the Defensive Player of the Year. Kamara would go on to be drafted in the fifth round in the 2024 NFL Draft to the Miami Dolphins.

During the offseason, Norvell again built a recruiting class which was a 19-player freshman class ranked first in the Mountain West by 247Sports and ranked fifth overall among the Group of Five, while also using the transfer portal to add players in key positions.

Off the field and the recruiting trail, Norvell's impact in the Fort Collins and Colorado State community has been equally as significant. From the day Norvell stepped foot on campus, he has interacted with anyone interested in Colorado State University and Colorado State Athletics. From speaking engagements to organizing a run for charity, Norvell has re-ignited a spark in the community around his program.

Perhaps his biggest and most notable introduction has been that of the Grit Run - a 5K fun-run around campus with all proceeds going to benefit research around cystic fibrosis, a disease which impacts his wife, Kim, on a daily basis. In its first year, the Norvell's raised more than $20,000 to directly benefit the CF Foundation. The total has nearly tripled through year three with more than $60,000 going to research causes.

Prior to the 2024 season, Norvell established a Minority Fellowship position within his coaching staff in honor of his late father Merritt Norvell. The position titled Merritt James Norvell Diversity Fellowship will be for a young minority coach to gain experience and will be completely funded by Jay and his wife. Norvell is the first Black head coach in program history.

Norvell's resume and experiences reaches to all corners of college and professional football. He has spent time in the Big 10, Big 12, Pac-12, and NFL with the Indianapolis Colts and Oakland Raiders – a period that included an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002 under head coach Bill Callahan. During his time as an assistant, Norvell coached in every BCS bowl game during the BCS Era including the 2009 BCS National Championship with Oklahoma. Overall, he has been to 22 bowl games as both a player and a coach.

An All-Big 10 defensive back during his playing career at Iowa under legendary Hawkeyes coach Hayden Fry, Norvell got his first opportunity in coaching under Fry on the defensive side of the football. That move proved fruitful for the young graduate assistant in 1986.

Over stops at Oklahoma, Texas, and Arizona State, Norvell mixed his Air Raid-style offensive scheme with principles of under-center schemes employed in the NFL to put together a highly effective offensive machine. While coaching wide receivers at Oklahoma (2008-14), a period which also including serving as co-offensive coordinator (2011-14), Norvell mentored Oklahoma greats in Kenny Stills, Sterling Shephard and Ryan Broyles, who left Oklahoma as the NCAA's all-time leader in receptions.

His run at Oklahoma coincided with the careers of three of the top four players on OU's all-time receptions list: Broyles, Stills, and Juaquin Iglesias. He also oversaw five of the program's top six single-season reception marks and helped his receiving corps earn 10 all-conference and three academic all-conference first team honors.

Prior to his appointment at Oklahoma, Norvell served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at both UCLA (2007) and Nebraska (2004-06). The Cornhuskers were one of only two teams in the nation to rank in the top 25 in total offense, scoring offense, rushing offense and passing offense in 2006. That same year Nebraska totaled nine wins and finished the regular season as Big 12 North Division Champions.

Aside from the college game, Norvell coached for six seasons in the NFL, four of which were with the Colts and two with the Raiders. While with Oakland he coached tight ends for two seasons and worked alongside an offense that included Hall of Fame receivers Jerry Rice and Tim Brown. His trip to the Super Bowl in 2002 was steered by an offense that led the NFL in total yards and passing yards per game. Norvell joined the Colts coaching staff in 1998 as the wide receivers coach and mentored Marvin Harrison to 385 receptions, 5,376 receiving yards and 48 touchdowns during his tenure. His time with the Colts was also the first four seasons of two-time Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning's career.

A 1986 graduate of Iowa, Norvell was an All-Big Ten defensive back and recorded a league-high seven interceptions in 1985 as he helped the Hawkeyes put together a 10-2 record, a conference championship and a spot in the Rose Bowl. He was a member of the Chicago Bears in 1987 before he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Norvell, who hails from Madison, Wis., has a wife, Kim, and son, Jaden. He is the author of a book, "Complete Wide Receiver," which was published in 2012.

^During Playing Career

Matt Mumme, an Air Raid offense enthusiast, joined Jay Norvell's initial staff in December 2021 and was named associate head coach and quarterbacks coach. Prior to the 2025 season, Mumme was elevated to associate head coach and pass-game coordinator.

Prior to Fort Collins, Mumme spent five seasons at Nevada with Norvell, coaching the play callers. In his final two seasons in Reno, the Wolf Pack offense hit new heights, led by QB Carson Strong, who repeated as Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year. Nevada led the conference in scoring offense (36.7 points/game), touchdowns (54), pass attempts (549), pass completions (383) and passing offense (365.8 yards per game) as Strong led the league in total offense (330.5 per), passing yards per game (347.9) and tied for the lead in passing touchdowns (36). After ranking No. 12 nationally in 2020 in passing offense, Nevada finished No. 4 in 2021 and the scoring offense ranked No. 15 nationally.

Mumme adopted the Air Raid scheme right away with Nevada to much success. The Wolf Pack ranked No. 32 in the nation in Mumme's first season and was second in the Mountain West in passing offense, averaging 270.4 yards per game through the air. The Air Raid attack got better during league play when it increased to 307.4 yards per game, which ranked first in the conference.

Before Nevada, Mumme was the head coach of LaGrange College in Georgia. Mumme's offense led the USA South Conference in passing for the fourth straight year in 2016, averaging more than 360 yards per game. The Panthers led Division III in passing yards per game in 2013, sixth in 2014 and in 2016 they finished fifth in the nation in passing.

Prior to LaGrange, Mumme spent two seasons at Davidson as the offensive coordinator. His offenses broke numerous school records. QB Jonathan Carkhuff broke the school passing record and was sixth in the nation, while receiver Lanny Funsten became an All-American under Mumme, setting a single-season school record with 100 receptions.

In two seasons at McMurry, Mumme's War Hawks were second in Division III in passing yards and led all of college football with 45 touchdown passes. His offense produced 6,699 passing yards and 71 touchdowns, driving the team's first winning season in 10 years.

Mumme spent four seasons at New Mexico State as the quarterbacks coach and eventually earning the title of offensive coordinator. Under the guidance of Mumme, three-year quarterback Chase Holbrook broke nearly every Aggie game, season and career passing record. Holbrook threw for 11,846 career yards, placing him fourth in the WAC career record book, and 85 touchdowns while completing 69.5 percent of his passes.

Mumme started his coaching career at Southeastern Louisiana in 2003 and in his first season his offense led the nation in both passing offense and total offense. The Lions offense also led the nation in passing in 2004.

Mumme played quarterback at Kentucky under his father, Hal Mumme, the noted architect of the pass-happy and up-tempo Air Raid system.

Bill Best joined Jay Norvell's initial staff in January 2022 and coaches the offensive line. In addition to overseeing the Rams Moving Co., Norvell elevated Best to add Run-Game Coordinator prior to the 2025 season.

Since coming to Fort Collins, Best has overhauled an undersized linemen room which were nearly the worst unit in the country in sacks allowed in 2022. Since, the Rams have drastically improved, finishing the 2024 season in the top 5 in the country and the top 20 in 2023. This improvement was lead by All-American center Jacob Gardner, who was a five-year starter dating back to Nevada. The three-time captain started every game he played in - 58 consecutive games. Gardner finished his career earning All-American honors from multiple outlets and was named first-team All-Mountain West - the first offensive lineman for CSU since 2017.

Best had his work cutout in his first season with the Rams, trying to guide through a series of injuries, leading to four different centers starting during the 2022 season including a walk-on true freshman. The unit had a different staring five in each of the first five weeks, using six different combinations throughout the season.

In two seasons at Nevada, his offensive line earned nine All-Mountain West honors, ranging from second team to honorable mention. In 2021, five of his linemen were recognized for protecting two-time Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year, quarterback Carson Strong, enabling the Wolf Pack to finish fourth nationally in passing offense.

After beginning his coaching career at the high school level, Best has spent the bulk of his college career in Texas, beginning at the junior college level in 2004 with stops at West Texas A&M, Central Arkansas, Stephen F. Austin and Rice.

He coached tight ends at Rice in 2018 and 2019 after a strong four-year run at SFA with the Lumberjacks. While at Nacogdoches, SFA averaged 435 yards per game in 2016 and 2017, including a rushing offense that put up more than 200 yards a game in 2017. The Lumberjacks' offensive line also paved the way for a 1,600-yard rusher during Best's first season in 2014.

Prior to SFA, Best spent the previous two seasons as the offensive line coach for Central Arkansas and spent six seasons at West Texas A&M.

Best spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Ranger College after beginning his coaching career at the high school level in Louisiana.

Tyson Summers returned to Colorado State in January 2025 as Colorado State's defensive coordinator. It is Summers second stint as the team's defensive leader, formerly serving in the role in the 2015 season for Mike Bobo.

Summers came to Colorado State from Western Kentucky, where he was the Hilltoppers' defensive coordinator for three seasons. His units ranked near the top of the Conference USA statistics all three campaigns in terms of scoring defense and ranked in the top half of the conference in pass defense, leading the league in 2024 by allowing just 176.1 yards per game.

During the 2022 and 2023 seasons, the Hilltoppers led the nation in defensive touchdowns, scoring nine times. Summers' units also had a penchant for creating turnovers those two years with 58 combined, leading the country in 2022 and ranking seventh in 2023. WKU's defense forced 20 turnovers in 2024, 10 each for interceptions and fumbles recovered. In 2022, Summers was a candidate for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the top assistant in the nation.

Summers spent one season with Colorado State in 2014 as the defensive coordinator before earning the head coach position at Georgia Southern, a position he held for two seasons. He spent the 2018 season as a defensive quality control coach at Georgia, then became Colorado's defensive coordinator from 2019-2020. He was a defensive analyst at Florida in 2021 before heading to Western Kentucky.

Prior to his first stint in Fort Collins he was the linebackers and defensive coordinator at UCF for three seasons, posting a 31-9 record. Summers was the linebackers coach for two seasons before being named defensive coordinator for the 2014 campaign.

Summers joined the UCF staff after coaching at UAB from 2007-11, where he served as the linebackers coach during his first four years before transitioning to safeties and co-special teams coordinator during his final season in Birmingham.

Prior to his time at UAB, Summers spent short stints in the college coaching ranks at Georgia Southern, Georgia, Troy and his alma mater Presbyterian.

Veteran coach Tommy Perry joined Jay Norvell's initial staff in January 2022 and is the special teams coordinator. The role reunited Perry with Norvell after the two worked together during Norvell's first three seasons at Nevada. Perry was the first Colorado State coach devoted solely to leading the special team unit. Prior to Fort Collins, he spent the past five seasons of his career as a special teams coach, and has held the title 12 other seasons at various stops, the first being at Texas A&M – Commerce in 2005.

Perry handled the special team units at UTSA and Nevada prior to arriving in Fort Collins. In San Antonio he helped the Roadrunners to a Conference USA Championship in 2021, while also garnering a Lou Groza Award semifinalist with placekicker Hunter Duplessis. Perry also improved the specialists while in Reno, increasing punt returns and overall punting.

Perry spent three seasons at North Texas handling special teams and coaching running backs. The Mean Green rushed for the second-most rushing touchdowns in program history with 31, while running back Brandin Byrd recorded his first 1,000-yard rushing season.

Prior to his tenure in Denton, Perry spent four seasons coaching running backs and special teams at South Alabama. Perry coached place-kicker Michel Chapuseaux, who broke the school's single-season scoring record with 84 points.

Perry has additional experience coaching at the professional level after working as a special teams assistant and head strength coach for NFL Europe's Amsterdam Admirals in 2006.

Perry began his coaching career as an assistant strength & conditioning coach at Texas in 2004, also serving as an academic advisor for the Longhorns. He became a special teams and running backs coach at Texas A&M - Commerce in 2005 before heading to Alabama as a graduate assistant for three years under Nick Saban and Mike Shula.

Grant Chesnut came to Colorado State in February 2025 after spending the past season at Western Kentucky coaching tight ends. Before arriving on The Hill, Chesnut was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Navy for one season.

Prior to that, he held the same role at Kennesaw State starting in 2014. The Owls inaugural season for football came in 2015 and Chesnut wasted no time helping claim Big South Championships in 2017, 2018 and 2021, including posting a 5-4 mark in the FCS playoffs during his time in Black and Gold.

Chesnut started his collegiate coaching career at Kennesaw State in 2014 with the inaugural season in 2015. The Owls' offense scored 56 points at East Tennessee State in the inaugural games before going on to record the fifth-highest single-season rushing yards (3,398) in Big South history, rushing for five 300-yard games on the year. Kennesaw State continued to thrive under Chesnut's play calling, ranking in the top three in the FCS in rushing offense from 2017-21, including leading the nation in 2017 and 2019. KSU set records in 2019 for rushing touchdowns in a season with 58 as it tallied its third-straight 11-win season and made a third-straight appearance in the FCS Playoffs.

During his junior and senior seasons as an offensive tackle at Georgia Southern, Chesnut was part of Eagle teams that won the Southern Conference Championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs in 1997 and advanced to the 1998 NCAA National Championship game, finishing the year with a 14-1 record.

Finley coached tight ends for the first three seasons at Colorado State before starting his current position in January 2025. Finley was hired to coach running back, but shifted to tight ends following the hire of Timmy Chang to Hawai'i.

Finley came to Colorado State after spending four seasons as the wide receivers coach at Mater Dei, a southern California high school football powerhouse, where he helped win two national championships. Former Ram George Miki-Han and former CSU punter Ryan Stonehouse both attended the school. Finley was an All-Pac 10 Honorable Selection over two years playing at Oregon (2005-06).

Prior to his career at Oregon, Finley was ranked among the nation's top 10 junior college wide receivers following the 2004 season by SuperPrep as well as 32nd in the country among JC prospects encompassing all positions. College Football News tabbed him nationally as the sixth-best junior college receiver and 15th-best overall recruit. He ranked seventh in California in receptions per game as a sophomore (6.4 avg.) and 11th in yards per game (100.8 avg.), hauling in seven touchdowns to go along with his 64 catches and 1,008 receiving yards.

During his prep career, he completed his senior year with 83 receptions for more than 1,400 yards and 14 touchdowns to become one of three wide receivers to be named to the Long Beach Press-Telegram's Best-in-the-West contingent as well as the Tacoma News Tribune's Western One-Hundred. His 131 receptions for 2,477 yards and 28 TDs during his final two prep campaigns did not include his six catches for 122 yards and two scores in the post-season California-Florida high school all-star game.

Luke Johnson joined Colorado State in July 2025 as the defensive line coach after spending the previous season at Baylor as a defensive graduate assistant. Johnson joined the Baylor staff in May of 2024 and was elevated into the Quality Control role in January of 2025 and assistant linebacker coach in the summer.

During his first season with the Bears, Johnson helped transform a defensive unit under head coach Dave Aranda into a thriving unit that helped spur a six-game winning streak to conclude the regular season, earning BU a berth in the Texas Bowl.

His 2024 defensive unit was highlighted by the dynamic inside linebacker duo of Keaton Thomas and Matt Jones. The pair combined for 227 tackles, each earning first-team All-Big 12 honors. They marked the first linebacker duo since 2011 to total over 100 tackles each in a season.

Before Waco, Johnson worked as a defensive graduate assistant at Western Kentucky in 2023, which followed a season as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Sioux Falls in 2022.

Johnson started his coaching career at Wofford in 2020 as a defensive quality control coach. The following year he was elevated to the outside linebackers for the Terriers.

While at Western Kentucky, he worked alongside Colorado State's defensive coordinator Tyson Summers. Johnson helped the Toppers to 26 total turnovers, leading the conference and ranking No. 7 nationally. WKU had 11 fumble recoveries, ranking seventh in the nation and its 15 interceptions ranked No. 15 in the NCAA.

Johnson played four seasons at UW-Platteville, from 2016-19, where he was a four-year starter at cornerback, a 2019 team captain, and was named to second-team all-conference in 2017 and to the 2016 newcomer team of the year. Johnson was the recipient of the George Chryst Award, representing leadership and attitude both on and off the field.

Jeremy Moses joined Jay Norvell's initial staff in January 2022 and coaches the running backs.

For Moses, it was a return to the collegiate ranks after spending the past few seasons as a high school football coach in Texas, both at Clear Lake and Baytown Sterling. The seven years prior, he was an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Stephen F. Austin, coaching the wide receivers and running backs before serving as the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach his final two seasons.

In 2014, Moses spent the season leading Walter Payton Award finalist Gus Johnson, guiding the senior to the best rushing season in both SFA and Southland history. It formed a unique storyline with a Walter Payton Award winner mentoring a Walter Payton Award finalist.

Named to numerous All-America teams during his collegiate career from 2007-10, Moses re-wrote both school and Southland record books on his way to being named FCS National Player of the Year. A two-time Southland Player of the Year selection, Moses graduated from SFA as the NCAA's all-time leader in completions (1,184) at the FCS level, a record he still holds today.

Following his playing career for the Purple and White, Moses spent one season at North Alabama as an quarterback assistant on Terry Bowden's coaching staff before returning to his alma mater.

^During Playing Career

Clint Sintim came to Colorado State in February 2025 and was previously at Illinois as the outside linebacker coach for the 2024 season. Prior to the Fighting Illini, Sintim spent the previous four years as a defensive coach with Virginia. He coached the Cavaliers defensive line and linebackers while in Charlottesville. Before returning to this alma mater, Sintim spent three seasons at Delaware and Richmond, coaching on the defensive side of the ball.

During his time playing in Charlottesville, he led the NCAA in sacks by a linebacker his final season, finishing with 11, including 70 total stops with 13 TFLs. His first season with the Cavaliers he earned Freshman All-American honors and the ACC Defensive Freshman of the Year. Sintim was drafted by the New York Giants in the second round of the 2009 NFL draft. He played two seasons in New York, before a knee injury sidelined him for the 2011 and 2012 campaigns. He was part of the Super Bowl 2012 championship before announcing his retirement as a player in 2013.

After his NFL playing career, Sintim spent the 2014 season with the West Alabama Tigers as the outside linebackers coach and assisted with special teams as part of the NFL Players Association Coaching Internship Program. Prior to the 2016 season, Sintim took part in the NFL Minority Internship Program and worked with the Washington Redskins during their preseason camp. emphasis in management.

Jordon Simmons joined Jay Norvell's initial staff in January 2022 as the Assistant Head Coach and head strength and conditioning coach after serving in the same role for five years at Nevada, bringing with him a strong military and football background to the team.

Simmons, a native of Redondo Beach, Calif., joined the Wolf Pack from North Carolina, where he operated a kickboxing gym and served as head trainer after a year with the United States 3rd Group Special Forces in Fort Bragg, North Carolina. In his time with the Special Forces, Simmons worked with wounded warriors and executed team training for groups readying for deployment.

Simmons and Norvell first connected in 2010 when they both worked at Oklahoma. Simmons was serving as a member of the Sooners' strength staff, working with football, wrestling, baseball, soccer and tennis. He also took the lead and revamped the nutrition program at OU. Prior to Oklahoma, Simmons was a strength and conditioning assistant with the NFL's Carolina Panthers from 2007-10. Simmons has also worked for the University of Alabama. His father, Jerry, spent 23 years in the NFL as the head strength and conditioning coach for the New England Patriots, Cleveland Browns, Baltimore Ravens and Carolina Panthers.

Simmons received his bachelor's degree in sports management with minors in exercise science and business from Lenoir-Rhyne University in 2010 and his master's in exercise physiology from Oklahoma in 2013.

During undergrad at Lenoir-Rhyne, Simmons was a four-year starter on the Bears football team as a long snapper and member of the defensive unit and received first team all-conference honors in 2008 and 2009.

AUSTIN, Texas — Quinn Ewers passed for 260 yards and three touchdowns and No. 4 Texas rolled past Colorado State 52-0 on Saturday in the opener for both teams.

Ewers connected with Matthew Golden for a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter, one of them a no-look toss, and had another strike to Isaiah Bond as the Longhorns built a 31-0 lead by halftime.

Texas had its first season-opening shutout since 2004.

A big question for Texas heading into this season was just how quickly Ewers and Texas would find their rhythm in a passing attack that lost the top five receivers from the 2023 Big 12 championship team. Texas joined the Southeastern Conference this year.

Golden transferred from Houston and Bond from Alabama, and Ewers and his rebuilt receiving corps easily carved up the Rams. After a slow start that included a stalled drive and an interception on Texas' first three possessions, Texas scored 24 points in the second quarter.

Ewers spread passes around 10 different receiving and had 248 yards passing by halftime. As for the no-look He completed 20 of 27 passes before leaving the game for Arch Manning midway through the third quarter.

Manning's first drive started with a 40-yard pass to Johntay Cook II. It ended with Manning's first career TD pass, a scrambling 5-yard toss to Silas Bolden, another transfer from Oregon State, that made it 45-0.

Texas scored touchdowns on all seven drives inside the Colorado State 30.

FORT COLLINS — Tory Horton returned a punt 78 yards for a touchdown less than two minutes in and Colorado State went on to beat Northern Colorado 38-17 on Saturday.

The Bears went three-and-out on the game's opening drive and Horton returned Hunter Green's punt for a score. After Jordan Noyes' 20-yard field goal made it 10-0, Northern Colorado's Peter Costelli threw a 9-yard score to Fisher Clements with 45 seconds left in the first quarter to reduce the deficit to three.

On Colorado State's next drive, Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi ran it in from the 2 to end a 10-play, 75-yard drive with 10:23 before halftime. Before intermission, Keegan Holles ran it from the 4 ending a 14-play, 58-yard drive. The two drives combined used 11 minutes of the quarter.

Fowler-Nicolosi threw for 180 yards for Colorado State (2-1).

Costelli threw for 187 yards and two touchdowns for the Bears (0-2).

FORT COLLINS — Two-way standout Travis Hunter caught two of Shedeur Sanders' four touchdown passes and also had an interception as Colorado cruised to a 28-9 win over Colorado State on Saturday night.

Sanders finished 36 of 49 for 310 yards in the first Rocky Mountain Showdown held in Fort Collins since 1996. Sanders found LaJohntay Wester for a pair of scores and connected with Hunter 13 times for 100 yards.

This was the seventh straight win by Colorado (2-1) over Colorado State (1-2). The Rams will have to wait a while to break the skid, with the in-state rivalry not on the schedule again until 2029.

Colorado's offense started slow a week after losing 28-10 at Nebraska, but finally found its rhythm. Shedeur Sanders led the Buffaloes to 28 straight points after trailing 3-0 midway through the second quarter.

What's more, Sanders was kept well-protected by an offensive line that's searching for consistency. He was only sacked one time — in the fourth quarter, and with the game well in hand.

This was a big week for Colorado State, which announced the school would be one of four joining the Pac-12 in 2026 as part of a move to rebuild the athletic conference. The Buffaloes left the Pac-12 for the Big 12 this season.

Fowler-Nicolosi finished with 209 yards passing and two interceptions. Justin Marshall had a late score to make it 28-9.

FORT COLLINS — Avery Morrow ran for 156 yards with two touchdowns and Colorado State defeated UTEP 27-17 on Saturday.

Morrow's 2-yard touchdown run made it 7-0 in the first quarter and his 73-yard jaunt gave the Rams a 14-3 lead about 5 1/2 minutes before halftime.

In the third quarter, Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi's short touchdown pass to Armani Winfield, followed by a 37-yard Jordan Noyes field goal made it 24-3 midway through the period.

UTEP rallied with touchdown passes of 28 and 56 yards from Cade McConnell pass to Kenny Odom to make it 24-17 early in the fourth.

The Miners turned it over on downs near midfield on their next possession, then the Rams took nearly six minutes off the clock with a drive that ended with a 39-yard field goal by Noyes.

Fowler-Nicolosi completed 14 of 22 passes for 132 yards. He had one touchdown and one interception. The Rams had 224 yards on the ground.

McConnell was 19-of-29 passing for 220 yards. The Miners were held to 48 yards rushing.

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Anthony Hankerson ran for a career-high 113 yards and two scores that included a 25-yard touchdown run in the second overtime, and Oregon State stopped Colorado State twice on fourth-and-goal to end it for a 39-31 victory over Colorado State on Saturday night.

On the final possession of the game, Colorado State had fourth-and-goal from the 10. Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi threw the ball out of the end zone, but a pass interference call gave the Rams a new set of downs from the 2.

The Beavers then stopped the Rams three times and a penalty helped make it fourth-and-goal from the 11. This time Fowler-Nicolosi's fade pass to Tory Horton in the corner of the end zone was knocked away.

Fowler-Nicolosi was 20-of-30 passing for 263 yards and threw two touchdown passes for Colorado State (2-3), which trailed 21-10 early in the fourth quarter. Avery Morrow carried the ball 25 times for 140 yards and scored once. Horton made nine catches for 158 yards with a touchdown.

Fowler-Nicolosi tossed a 10-yard TD pass to Horton and a 2-point conversion pulled the Rams to 29-16 with 7:59 left.

Following the final two-minute timeout and on fourth-and-goal, Morrow took a direct snap out of a wildcat formation and bulled into the end zone from the 1 to give Colorado State a 24-21 lead.

McCoy then led a 14-play, 52 yard drive to set up Everett Hayes' 44-yard field goal with 20 seconds left in regulation.

FORT COLLINS — Avery Morrow ran for 100 yards and two touchdowns and Armani Winfield turned a short pass into the clinching 62-yard touchdown as Colorado State defeated San José State 31-24 on Saturday.

Morrow's second 2-yard touchdown run and a career-long 58-yard field goal by Jordan Noyes had the Rams on top 24-14 midway through the fourth quarter but the Spartans came back with a 21-yard touchdown run by Floyd Chalk.

It was just four snaps later that Winfield, crossing from left to right, caught the ball over the middle at the line of scrimmage and then blazed down the right sideline for the clincher. San José State answered with a field goal with 66 seconds to go but the Rams recovered the onside kick.

It was 14-14 at halftime with the big play an 85-yard fumble return by San José's DJ Harvey in the last minute.

Colorado State (3-3, 1-0 Mountain West Conference) took the lead when Morrow capped a 91-yard drive.

Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi was 22-of-30 passing for 269 yards with an interception with Winfield catching six balls for 108 yards. He also ran for a 23-yard touchdown that put the Rams on top 14-7 in the first minute of the second quarter.

USAFA, Colo. — Caleb Goodie caught an 85-yard touchdown pass, Avery Morrow ran for more than 100 yards, and Colorado State held off Air Force 21-13 on Saturday night for its first win at the Academy since 2002.

Goodie made a jumping one-handed catch near the Rams' 30-yard line and then raced untouched to the end zone for an 85-yard touchdown to stretch the Rams' advantage to 21-0 with 11:02 to play in the third quarter. Goodie finished with three catches for 103 yards.

Air Force scored all 13 of its points in the fourth quarter. The Falcons final possession ended on an incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from their own 43-yard line.

Morrow had 132 yards rushing on 20 carries for Colorado State (4-2, 2-0 Mountain West Conference). Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi was 11-of-21 passing for 178 yards.

The Rams' running back Kobe Johnson tossed a 23-yard touchdown pass to Vince Brown II to open the scoring with 5:28 left in the second quarter. Jalen Dupree added a 1-yard TD run to give Colorado State a 14-0 halftime lead.

John Busha completed 10 of 25 passes for 175 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions for Air Force (1-6, 0-4). He added 31 yards rushing on 18 carries that included a 1-yard TD run that capped the scoring with 5:50 remaining.

FORT COLLINS — Kobe Johnson returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown to lift Colorado State to a 17-6 win over New Mexico on Saturday.

Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi and Caleb Goodie also combined on a 46-yard touchdown as the Rams (5-3, 3-0 Mountain West Conference) scored all 17 points in the second quarter of the homecoming win.

Johnson fielded the punt on his left sideline and danced diagonally through the defenders until he reached smooth sailing down the right sideline.

Luke Drzewiecki opened the scoring with a 29-yard field goal in the first minute of the second quarter and closed it with a 43-yarder at 6:22 of the third quarter for the Lobos (3-5, 2-2).

After the first field goal, Fowler-Nicolosi found Goodie deep down the middle, hitting him in stride at the goal line on the post pattern. Fowler-Nicolosi finished 11 of 20 for 142 yards passing.

Ryan Davis had a career day for New Mexico with nine catches for 146 yards as Devon Dampier was 23-of-40 passing for 319 yards, but he had two interceptions.

The Lobos had 453 yards to 334 for the Rams but New Mexico had four turnovers.

RENO, Nev. — Avery Morrow ran for two touchdowns, Justin Marshall also had a rushing TD and the Colorado State special teams starred Saturday night as the Rams beat Nevada 38-21.

Colorado State (6-3, 4-0 Mountain West Conference) has won four games in a row and five of its last six.

Morrow ran for a 7-yard touchdown with 10:40 left in the first quarter and, after a Nevada punt, Marshall capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive with an 8-yard TD run to give the Rams a 14-0 lead with 2:20 remaining in the first quarter.

Jordan Noyes kicked a career-long 60-yard field goal (tied for second longest in school history) to make it 17-0 at halftime. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, Ayden Hector forced a fumble that was recovered by Gabe Kirschke to eventually set up a 21-yard field goal by Noyes with 11:30 to go in the third.

On the ensuing kickoff, a miscommunication led to Nevada failing to field the ball. Sophomore wide receiver Caleb Goodie raced down field and, inside the 1, met returner Sean Dollars at the ball and knocked it into the end zone where Jace Bellah covered it. Jamari Person caught a pass for the 2-point conversion to make it 28-0 with 11:17 remaining in the third quarter.

Noyes made a 35-yarder to cap the scoring with 1:11 to play.

Nevada (3-7, 0-4) has lost three games is a row and four of its last five.

FORT COLLINS — Avery Morrow had a touchdown run in the first quarter, wide receiver Dane Olson followed with a touchdown pass to quarterback Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi, and Colorado State used a fast start to remain unbeaten in the Mountain West Conference with a 24-10 victory over Wyoming on Friday night.

Morrow staked Colorado State (7-3, 5-0) to a 7-0 lead when he capped a game-opening 75-yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown run. The Rams led 14-0 after the first quarter when Olson and Fowler-Nicolosi teamed up for a 6-yard score on a trick play with 28 seconds left.

John Hoyland had a 49-yard field goal to get Wyoming (2-8, 2-4) on the scoreboard early in the second quarter. Jordan Noyes kicked a 33-yarder to put Colorado State up 17-3 at halftime.

Fowler-Nicolosi connected with Tommy Maher for a 53-yard touchdown early in the third quarter for the Rams' only score after intermission. Kaden Anderson's 1-yard scoring run for the Cowboys came with 8:42 left in the third quarter. It was the final score of the game.

Fowler-Nicolosi completed 14 of 17 passes for 192 yards for Colorado State. Justin Marshall carried 16 times for 104 yards. Morrow added 84 yards on 13 rushes.

Anderson finished with 120 yards on 13-for-30 passing for Wyoming.

FRESNO, Calif. — Mikey Keene threw two touchdown passes, Bryson Donelson had a career-high 150 yards rushing and a TD on 13 carries Saturday night and Fresno State beat Colorado State 28-22.

Colorado State (7-4, 5-1 Mountain West) fell into a tie for second with No. 24 UNLV in the conference standings behind No. 12 Boise State — which will host the Mountain West championship game on Dec. 6.

Donelson, a freshman, went into the game with 199 yards rushing this season, including his previous season high of 58 yards in the season opener. Keene was 20-of-28 passing for 181 yards with no interceptions. Mac Dalena finished with seven receptions for 75 yards and a touchdown for Fresno State (6-5, 4-3 Mountain West Conference).

Justin Marshall capped a 12-play, 77-yard opening drive that took nearly 6 1/2 minutes off the clock with a 10-yard TD for the Rams and finished with 73 yards rushing.

Donelson ran for a 21 yards and Keene hit Raylen Sharpe for a 38-yard gain to set up a 16-yard TD run by Donelson to make it 7-7. Joshua Wood followed with a 4-yard scoring run before Dalena caught a 28-yard touchdown pass with 3:18 left in the second quarter and Keene hit Jalen Moss for a 15-yard TD less than 3 minutes later that gave the Bulldogs a 28-7 lead at halftime.

Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi ran for a 9-yard TD late in the third quarter, threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Jamari Person and then hit Vince Brown II for the 2-point conversion to trim Colorado State's deficit to 28-22 with 17 seconds left.

FORT COLLINS — Sophomore Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi threw three of his four touchdown passes in the fourth quarter and ran for the go-ahead score as Colorado State used a run of 29 consecutive points to beat Utah State 42-37 on Friday to close the regular season.

Fowler-Nicolosi went to work for the Rams (8-4, 6-1 MW) after the Aggies (4-8, 3-4 MW) scored two touchdowns in the final 67 seconds of the third quarter to take a 30-13 lead.

Fowler-Nicolosi threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Vince Brown II and a 22-yarder to Jordan Ross with six minutes remaining to get the Rams within 30-28.

Dominic Morris picked off Barnes four plays later, giving Colorado State the ball on the Aggies' 19-yard line. Fowler-Nicolosi ran it in from 3 yards out and the Rams took a 35-30 lead with 2:32 left to play. Utah State turned the ball over on downs and Fowler-Nicolosi hit Brown for a 26-yard touchdown to cap the Rams' scoring.

Fowler-Nicolosi threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to Dane Olson with 19 seconds left to get the Rams within 16-13 at halftime.

Fowler-Nicolosi finished with 370 yards on 31-for-46 passing. Olson led the receivers with five receptions for 140 yards.

Barnes threw for 189 yards and rushed for 185 more to lead Utah State.

Colorado State has eight wins in a season for the first time in a decade.

TUSCON, Ariz. — Kevin Davis had a career-high 148 yards rushing and two touchdowns on just nine carries Saturday and Jordan Brunson also ran for two TDs to help Miami (Ohio) beat Colorado State 43-17 at the Arizona Bowl.

Davis scored on a 4-yard run with 12:35 left in the third quarter, Matt Salopek forced a fumble that was recovered by Silas Walters and quarterback Brett Gabbert's first rushing touchdown of the season — a 10-yard scramble that capped a 47-yard drive — made it 22-3 about 2 minutes later.

After the Rams failed to convert a fourth-and-4 from the 5, Davis took a hand off up the middle and raced untouched for a 97-yard touchdown to give the RedHawks a 26-point lead with 6:45 remaining in the third quarter.

Colorado State (8-5) committed four turnovers which the RedHawks converted into 19 points.

Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to Stephon Bailey and Peter Montini scored on a 1-yard run for the Rams.

Dom Dzioban made field goals of 34, 26 and 24 yards and the RedHawks led 9-3 lead at halftime.

The Rams made their first bowl appearance since 2017, when they lost 31-28 to Marshall at the New Mexico Bowl.

Individual 100-plus-yard receiving game streaks of three consecutive games or more denoted numerically next to the game.

Rashard Higgins did not play the Hawaii game in 2014; however, we have chosen to maintain his streak at eight for the official record book as, in our opinion, a streak like this cannot be snapped if the player doesn't play.

PLAYERS IN BOTH CHARTS

There are only three players in school history to have tallied at least one 100-yard receiving game and 100-yard rushing game.

Lawrence McCutcheon also accomplished the feat in the same game.

PLAYER	OPPONENT	YEAR	YARDS
Alvin Lewis, RB	Utah State	1978	119 (rec.)
Lawrence McCutcheon, RB	Utah State*	1970	117 (rec.)
	Wyoming	1970	147 (rec)
Raymond Carter, RB	Idaho	2010	120 (rec.)

IN THE POLLS SINCE 1994

After a win at BYU, Sept. 17, 1994, CSU entered the USA Today coaches poll ranked No. 25, the first appearance in the weekly poll since a brief stay in the UPI coaches rankings in 1977. The following week, in 1994, the Rams earned their first Associated Press ranking in program history. Overall, the program has been ranked 51 total weeks, most recently in 2014.

JOHN MACKEY AWARD
Nation's Top Tight End

Trey McBride, 2021

Following the 2020 season, which was shortened to just four games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Trey McBride evaluated his NFL prospects and ultimately decided to return to Colorado State for the 2021 with one goal in mind: to be the best tight end in the country.

Mission accomplished.

During his 2021 campaign, McBride posted one of the greatest seasons by an offensive player in school history and one of the all-time best by a tight end in FBS history. He led all FBS tight ends in receptions (90), yards (1,121), and yards per game (93.4) and became the school's career and single-season leader in both categories among tight ends.

The yardage total was the fifth-most in a single season by an FBS tight end and the most in Mountain West history. Following the season, McBride was named to a bevy of All-American teams including all five of the NCAA-recognized selectors to become the first unanimous All-American in program history and first offensive player in Mountain West history to reach that status.

McBride put a bow on the postseason recognition campaign when he was named the John Mackey Award winner as the nation's top tight end. He received the news from his parents, Kate and Jen McBride, the night before the Home Depot ESPN College Football Awards show when the nation was informed.

On Feb. 23, 2022, McBride officially received his trophy from Jerry Mackey, nephew of John Mackey, at a ceremony in Canvas Stadium as well as at halftime of the Border War men's basketball game.

The NFL confirmed the selection when McBride was selected No. 55 overall by the Arizona Cardinals in the second round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

He was the first tight end selected.

JIM THORPE AWARD
Nation's Top Defensive Back

Greg Myers, 1995

The personification of "student-athlete" and the winner of the 1995 Jim Thorpe Award, Greg Myers claimed as many decorations off the field as he did for his stellar on-field performance.

The first player in WAC history to earn All-WAC honors four times, Myers holds the league record with seven all-conference selections, four as a defensive back and three as a return specialist. A two-time First Team All-American, Myers led the NCAA with 555 punt return yards and three punt return touchdowns. He also set the WAC record with 1,332 career punt return yards, and he posted Colorado State records with three punt return scores and a 15.9-yard average. As a defensive back, he totaled 295 tackles and 15 interceptions. Myers helped guide the Rams to back-to-back WAC titles and Holiday Bowl berths.

A 1995 NFF National Scholar-Athlete, he was also named the Honda Scholar-Athlete of the Year that fall. Myers was named a two-time Academic All-American and a four-time Academic All-WAC honoree. The 1996 Nye Trophy recipient as CSU's most outstanding male athlete in academics, he was named to the NCAA Today's Top VIII. He earned a bachelor's degree in biological sciences in 1996 and a M.D. from the University of Colorado in 2006.

A fifth-round pick in the 1996 NFL Draft, Myers played five seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals and Dallas Cowboys. A 2001 Colorado State University Sports Hall of Fame inductee and a 2012 Colorado Sports Hall of Fame member, Myers was the second Ram to enter the College Football Hall of Fame, following 1981 inductee Thurman McGraw.

COLORADO STATE HONORED JERSEYS

Four great Colorado State Rams are honored atop Canvas Stadium for their contributions to Colorado State football and Colorado State Athletics. The numbers 21 (Eddie Hanna), 48 (Fum McGraw) and 14 (John Mosley), have been removed from circulation and those numbers are considered retired. Greg Myers' No. 3 jersey is honored for his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

#3
Greg Myers (1992-95)

- College Football Hall of Fame (2012)
- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (2012)
- NFF National Scholar Athlete (1995)
- East-West Shrine game (1995)
- Stan Bates Award (1995)
- Honda National Scholar Athlete of the Year (1995)

Greg Myers remains one of the all-time greatest football players in school history was the first Ram to have received a major national award. Myers' 1995 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back, was the highest individual NCAA award received by any CSU football player. He is a five-time first team All-WAC player and two time first-team All-American and the third consensus All-American in school history. Myers not only helped lead CSU to consecutive WAC championships in 1994 and 1995, he also received academic All-American honors in 1994 and 1995 as well. He returned four punts for touchdowns during his career and is tied with Gary Glick and Bill Kishman with 14 career interceptions all-time.

Myers' success on the field is still one of the finest in school history, but coupled with his amazing success in the classroom places him in a category second-to-none in school history. He is the only Ram football player named to first-team All-America on the field and as an Academic All-American in two consecutive seasons. Drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 5th round of the 1996 draft, he spent four seasons in Cincinnati and one in Dallas before retiring from the NFL. Myers went back to school and is now an anesthesiologist in the Denver area. In 2012 he was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame and a month later was selected to the 2012 class of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Myers and Fum McGraw are the only two former Colorado State football players in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Eddie Hanna (1947-49)

Eddie "Twinkle Toes" Hanna helped lead then-Colorado A&M to its first-ever bowl game, the 1949 Raisin Bowl, before his untimely passing after a game at Colorado College the following season. No player in program history has donned the #21 jersey since.

A trailblazer for race inclusion on Colorado A&M's campus, Hanna was one of three Black players on the 1948 team and was widely popular in the locker room. Hanna served in the Pacific during World War II and came to Fort Collins after a stint in junior college in his hometown of Dodge City, Kansas. As an example of his popularity, Hanna also hosted a radio show in town and was a frequent contributor to the Rocky Mountain Collegian, CSU's student newspaper.

A three-sport star for Colorado A&M, Hanna also played basketball and ran track. Following his untimely death, the Eddie Hanna Memorial Scholarship was created in his honor.

#48
Fum McGraw (1946-49)

- College Football Hall of Fame (1981)
- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (1971)
- 3rd in the 1948 NCAA Wrestling tournament
- 1950 NFL Rookie of the Year-Lineman
- All-Century Team (1992)
- Nye Award (1950)

One of the greatest names in school history, there are few things that Thurman "Fum" McGraw did not do during the 40 years he competed in athletics or worked for Colorado State University. McGraw was the third brother to attend Colorado A&M College and a native of Paonia, Colo. Fum excelled in all three sports he participated in during his four years as an Aggie athlete and earned All-American awards in football (1948, 1949), track (discus 1949) and wrestling (1948). He is the only athlete in school history to be named an All-American in three different sports. Also a member of the 1949 Raisin Bowl team, Fum went on to a career in the NFL that spanned five seasons and won two world championships with the Detroit Lions.

After his NFL career, he returned to his alma mater to be an assistant coach in football and wrestling. After a short stint in the NFL as an assistant coach, McGraw was named the school's assistant athletic director in 1965 under Jim Williams. He played an integral part in the construction of Moby Arena and Hughes Stadium before leaving in 1968. In 1976, he returned to CSU as the school's director of athletics where he remained until his retirement in 1986. In 1997, CSU named the new McGraw Athletic Center in his honor. Fum McGraw died in 2000 at the age of 73.

#14
John Mosley (1939-43)

- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (1998)
- Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (2009)
- Football MVP Award (1942)

Lt. Col. Mosley came to Colorado State as a National Merit Scholar from Denver's Manual High School in the fall of 1939. He tried out and made the football team as a freshman, becoming the first African American football player at Colorado State since 1906. Lt. Col. Mosley also decided to wrestle for coach Hans Wagner, becoming the second African American wrestler in school and state history. Lt. Col. Mosley earned all-conference honors in wrestling. He was a three-year letterman in football, becoming the first African American letterwinner in CSU football history.

Following graduation, Lt. Col. Mosley set his sights on flying and trained to be a pilot so he could fly for the Army Air Corps. He enrolled in the Tuskegee Flight training center and became one of the first African American bomber pilots in US history. Lt. Col. Mosley served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars, retiring as a Lt. Col. in the United States Air Force. Post-retirement, he became a spokesperson for black athletes and the Tuskegee Airmen, the first few African American pilots during WWII.

CSU developed the Lt. Col. John Mosley Mentoring Program as a resource for Black Student-Athletes and to serve and welcome all student-athletes in 2011. Lt. Col. Mosley died at the age of 93 on May 22, 2015.

CANVAS STADIUM

Canvas Stadium opened in 2017 and brought Colorado State Football back to campus for the first time in 50 years, providing countless new engagement opportunities for the entire university. The 727,000-square-foot facility seats 36,500 with standing room up to 41,000 and includes football offices, meeting rooms, locker rooms, and training facilities on the west side. The east side of the building includes the Iris and Michael Smith Alumni Center, general classroom space and the Collaborative for Student Achievement.

CSU and Canvas Credit Union announced a 15-year, $37.7 million naming rights agreement in April 2018, and the stadium was officially renamed to Canvas Stadium on June 5, 2018. The agreement with Canvas Credit Union combined with $20 million given in 2016 to name Sonny Lubick Field brought the total naming rights revenues at Colorado State to $57.7 million for the stadium.

Two spectacular VIP areas — the New Belgium Porch in the north end zone and the Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies (OCR) Field Club behind the Rams' bench at midfield — are unique in all of college football.

In August of the ingural season, New Belgium Brewing Company, an iconic, local Fort Collins brewery, donated $4.3 million to put its name and its product on the north end zone.

The stadium's design embraces Colorado's natural beauty, topography and visual connections to the Rocky Mountains from campus and ensures functionality for both game day and non-game day usage.

SONNY LUBICK FIELD

The playing surface at Canvas Stadium is named in honor of former head coach Sonny Lubick who spent 15 seasons (1993-2007) on the sidelines. Over his career, Lubick amassed 108 victories and a career winning percentage of .593 - both the second-best marks in program history.

Of Colorado State's 15 conference championships, Lubick's teams captured six over a span of nine seasons (1994-2002), marking the most successful era in program history.

For his efforts, Lubick was named the conference coach of the year four times during his CSU career (1994, 1997, 1999, 2000), and three times during his career, the Rams finished in the final top 25 rankings -- 1994 (15th) 1997 (16th) 2000 (14th).

The former head coach remains a prominent member of the Colorado State and Fort Collins community, helping teach leadership courses at CSU's buisness school and Vice President of Community Outreach for Canvas Credit Union.

His namesake also lives in Old Town Fort Collins at Sonny Lubick Steakhouse for the past 25 years.

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL STADIUM TIMELINE

Hughes Stadium (1968-2016)

Hughes Stadium was located at the base of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, about three miles west of the main campus area and in one of the most scenic settings to be found anywhere. The facility sat just below the iconic Aggie "A", freshly painted every year by freshmen football players and other campus volunteers.

Opened in 1968, the venerable stadium underwent several upgrades over the decades, including a major renovation between 2003 and 2006.

In 2003, the Bohemian Foundation contributed $15.2 million to the Colorado State athletic department. The majority of that gift was focused on improving Hughes Stadium. Over a three-year period, the facility received a spectacular new west tower, containing club seating, luxury suites and a new press box. CSU also enclosed the north end zone, increasing capacity to 32,500.

The final phase of the renovations focused on that surface itself. The field underwent a $1.33 million makeover prior to the 2006 season, when Colorado State installed FieldTurf, the revolutionary, rubberized surface used by several NFL and major college football venues across the country.

Hughes closed after 262 games, with the final one being a 49-31 victory over New Mexico on Nov. 20, 2016, securing bowl-eligibility for the Rams.

CSU's final record at Hughes: 146-114-2 (.561).

Hughes Stadium was knocked down in the spring of 2018.

Colorado Field (1912-67)

In 1910, the site of a college experiment station that grew potatoes was identified as the location where the future athletic field should be built. After two years of lobbying and with the support of college president Charles Lory, construction began on May 23, 1912. Students and faculty, including Lory, removed rocks and planted seed to build the first college football field in Colorado with grass.

Play began in the fall of 1912, after 1,000-seat grandstands were added by the beginning of football season. A cinder track around the field was added in 1914, since Harry Hughes was also the track coach.

In September 1912, the school built a clubhouse just east of the railroad tracks on what is now University Avenue, providing locker rooms and showers for both the Aggies and visiting players. Coupled with the outstanding grass surface and clubhouse, the state-of-the-art football stadium was the envy of the region and helped the Aggies to win eight conference championships over the next 25 years. The ninth and final conference championship team to play on Colorado Field was in 1955.

Over the 55 years Colorado Field served the Aggies, larger grandstands were built and bleachers were added on the east side and end zones. Today, Jack Christiansen Track, home to CSU's outdoor track and field squads and named after the Pro Football Hall of Famer, stands on the site where Colorado Field once graced the CSU campus.

In 1961 the university conducted a study to determine whether to turn Colorado Field into a major-college football stadium, or replace it with a new venue on the foothills campus. Because of traffic concerns and the facility's location in the center of Fort Collins, officials opted to construct a new stadium west of town, at the foothills. The last varsity game played on Colorado Field was in 1967, shortly before its demolition.

Durkee Field (1899-1911)

While little is known about the program's home grounds in 1893 and 1894, when the school's new college athletic organization resurrected football in 1899, the team's first official field was constructed in the spring of 1899. In May 1899, the area between Agricultural Hall and the Chemical Building (where Glenn Morris Field House sits today) was cleared of trees and drained of water. The ground was then graded to make a flat playing surface. With the railroad tracks on the west and South College Avenue on the east, this low-lying ground was actually a natural streambed, which is marked today by a tunnel under the railroad tracks. This stream becomes active when torrents of rain wash through the campus, such as the devastating flood of 1997. The newly reformed football team of 1899 played the first games here on a playing surface made up of primarily dirt and rocks.

In 1901, a graduate from the Class of 1900 named Charles Durkee donated money for a tall wooden fence, erected on three sides of the field with the railroad tracks acting as a barrier for the fourth side. The barriers helped keep non-paying fans out better than the military cadets (the previous system for chasing off freeloaders). In return for his fence, the college named the athletic grounds Durkee Field. Bleachers were later added for spectators to watch games and military drills. The facility was described by former players and head coach Harry Hughes as horrible to walk on, let alone play football. That stream would reappear during wet weather and ran through the playing field during some games.

Hughes' first football season of 1911 marked Durkee's last season of hosting football. When the rules of football changed to standardize the 100-yard field, Hughes used that opportunity to build a better field for his athletes. The military continued to drill on Durkee for several years, and tennis courts were later added for women's athletics. But in 1925, ground was broken for a new gym and fieldhouse that opened in 1927 and still stands there today.

Mascot History (Courtesy: John Hirn)

During the 62 years of the "Aggie Era" the college had different mascots that identified the school, however it was not until the 1959 that Colorado State University "officially" adopted the Ram as their mascot. In the earliest days of football there was never any mention of an official or unofficial mascot until 1912 when a dog showed up on campus.

The Colorado Aggie-Bulldogs?

Sometime around 1912 a student named Floyd Cross purchased an English Bulldog that eventually roamed around the Colorado Agricultural College campus. Students would feed the dog peanuts and he was taken to football games, adopted by Battery A and attended other athletic events. By all accounts he was very well liked by all of the Aggie students. In April or May of 1918 Peanuts was found dead. The Aggies were never referred to as the Bulldogs during Peanuts' status as mascot.

Billy Hughes and a Bear (below)

The 1919 Aggie football team had Billy Hughes listed as the school's official mascot. The son of coach Harry Hughes was about 6-years old when he served as the team's "mascot". Little Billy did not last long as the school mascot and was probably given the status because he attended the games and the students wanted a replacement after the loss of Peanuts.

The 1919 team also shows a bear cub as the school mascot in their championship team photo. Little is known about this bear, where it came from or even its name.

CAM THE RAM FACTS

CAM is the official Colorado State University mascot.
CAM stands for Colorado A&M, the University's previous name.
CAM is a domesticated breed of sheep known as a Rambouillet.
CAM is cared for and trained by the Ram Handlers, a volunteer group of students.
CAM is supported by the Alumni Association and by donations to the CAM Forever Fund.

This photo, taken during an Oct. 18, 1919 game between the Colorado Agricultural College Aggies and Utah, features a black bear cub laying calmly on the sidelines. The cub, which is inside the fence and very securely tethered to a certainly sturdy wood pole, was the Aggies' unofficial mascot during the 1919 season.

The bear disappeared as quickly as it arrived and for the next 26 years the Aggies did not have a mascot associated with the school; officially or unofficially.

SONNY LUBICK

Head Coach, 1993-2007
4x Conference Coach of the Year
Six Conference Titles
Nine Bowl Games

Colorado State's football program attained previously unknown heights during head coach Sonny Lubick's 15 seasons in Fort Collins. During that time, Lubick created a standard for excellence never before evident during the previous 94-year history of the football program. Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just two bowl appearances prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

» CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;

- Colorado State won or shared six conference titles from 1994-2007, more than any other Mountain West member over that period;
- CSU played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution from 1994-2007;
- The Rams ranked among the Top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;
- Lubick ranked among the Top 20 NCAA Division I FBS active coaches in career wins at the end of 2007;
- Colorado State placed among the leaders in MWC victories since the conference came into being in 1999;
- The Rams seven times won eight or more games in a season. » Four times – the first four times in school history – CSU won 10 or more games.

Lubick ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprints can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstiles. Not only were the Rams perennial postseason competitors under Lubick, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history came during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single-game crowds in CSU history through 2007 came during his time at the helm. Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division I-A coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members.

Interest and support of CSU's program had never been greater. The 2006 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor. The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season. Prior to the 2006 season, a new artificial playing surface was installed to complete the renovation. The playing surface at CSU's new Canvas stadium, which opened in 2017, also bears the name Sonny Lubick Field, thanks to an anonymous donation made in March 2016.

All-Star Coaching

- 2001: Hula Bowl All-Star Game
- 1995: East-West Shrine Game

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch touched the entire athletic department. For instance, during his tenure, CSU was able to:

- Renovate and expand Hughes Stadium ($15.2 million).
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990s and a gift of $75,000 from former defensive end and 10-year NFL veteran Brady Smith for program enhancements.
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions.
- Renovate Moby Arena ($4.5 million) in 1998 as part of the McGraw Center project.

Those projects alone totaled more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success that CSU's football program enjoyed after Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cared deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program was responsible for his actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick placed a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remained more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remaining on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick had those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

Lubick's impact was felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the Sports Illustrated Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record.
- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work.
- Also in 2003, the Rams' coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Association-Colorado Chapter as "Father of the Year."
- He was an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors;
- Lubick and his family were honored by a local charitable organization in the winter of 2006 for their commitment and dedication to the northern Colorado community.
- In January of 2007, Lubick was named the Collins Award winner, given annually to a local figure that exemplifies leadership and service to the Fort Collins Community by the local chamber of commerce.

Lubick remained staunch in his belief a family approach was one of the reasons for Colorado State's success during his tenure. Four of his 2007 coaching staff members – Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hammerschmidt, and his son Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993. Marc joined the staff in 2005 after time with the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi. Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere took place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick always was embraced by his three young grandchildren – Matthew, William and Emma – children of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle. Lubick's smile while embracing his three youngest Rams fans reflected the same happiness CSU supporters had come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.

1949 RAISIN BOWL

Saturday, Jan. 1, 1949 | 10,000
Ratcliffe Stadium | Fresno, Calif.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Occidental	0	0	7	14	--	21
Colorado A&M	0	13	0	7	--	20

Colorado State — at the time known as the Colorado A&M Aggies — made its first trip to a postseason bowl game at the conclusion of the 1948 football season, capping one of the most successful years in school history.

Coached by Bob Davis, Colorado A&M played on New Year's Day against Occidental College, after an 8-2 regular season highlighted by a 29-25 win over in-state rival Colorado in Boulder. The only two regular-season losses came at the hands of Drake and Utah, setting the stage for the team's trip to postseason play.

It was a star-studded Colorado A&M lineup that took the field that day in Fresno. Four players — Fum McGraw, Tuffy Mullison, Dale Dodrill, and Jack Christiansen — were team mainstays and now occupy spots in Colorado State's Sports Hall of Fame. A fifth star, running back Eddie Hanna, tragically would pass away after the opening game of the following season.

McGraw, the school's first consensus All-American, later played with the Detroit Lions, as did Christiansen, while Dodrill played for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Colorado A&M led 13-0 at halftime behind the play of Hanna. He scored on a 71-yard run after the Aggies had scored when quarterback Bob Hainlen hit Keith Thompson with a 5-yard scoring pass. But Occidental scored 21 second-half points to rally for the victory.

Hanna gave the Aggies their final touchdown of the game on a 79-yard run.

1990 FREEDOM BOWL

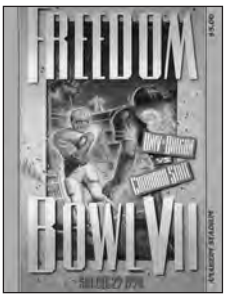
Bowl MVP - Todd Yert, RB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	7	5	13	--	32
Oregon	7	10	0	14	--	31



Colorado State's football squad opened the 1990 season with dreams higher than many observers felt possible. Those dreams included a postseason bowl berth. Having not been invited to a postseason game in 42 years, Colorado State earned a trip to the Freedom Bowl in 1990.

The Rams were matched against PAC-10 member Oregon in what would turn out to be one of the season's most exciting bowl games.

Colorado State scored first, opening the game with a 75-yard, 15-play drive on Mike Gimenez's 1-yard plunge. Trailing 25-19, the Rams took the lead on Gimenez's 49-yard pass to Greg Primus, then added insurance on Todd Yert's 52-yard scoring run to lead 32-25 with minutes remaining. But Oregon made one last grasp at victory behind quarterback Bill Musgrave, who led his team on a 79-yard scoring drive. The Rams' Selwyn Jones then thwarted the Ducks' two-point conversion pass attempt, an amazing play, to seal the win.

Yert was named the game's Offensive MVP, while teammate Robert Chirico earned defensive honors.

1994 HOLIDAY BOWL

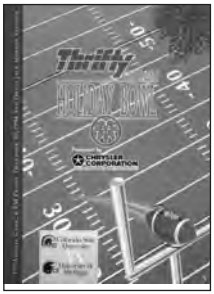
Bowl MVP - Anthoney Hill, QB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Michigan	10	7	7	0	--	24
Colorado State	7	0	0	7	--	14



Colorado State's miraculous dream season in 1994 concluded on the turf of San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium.

Colorado State served notice on the night in San Diego that the Rams' program would be a force in coming years. Following a Michigan touchdown on the Wolverines' initial drive of the game, Colorado State answered.

Quarterback Anthoney Hill drove the Rams 66 yards in nine plays for the tying touchdown, hitting receiver Paul Turner on a 32-yard scoring play. Hill, a native of San Diego, later would be honored as Colorado State's Offensive MVP in the game.

The Rams put their final touchdown on the scoreboard late in the game when Hill found receiver Jeremy Burkett down the right sideline for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

By the end of the game, which was played before the eighth-largest crowd in Holiday Bowl history, statistics reflected the closeness of the contest. Michigan had gained 341 total yards, only 1 more than the Rams had managed.

1995 HOLIDAY BOWL

Friday, Dec. 29, 1995 | 51,051

Bowl MVP - Damon Washington, WR

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	0	14	0	--	21
Kansas State	7	19	21	7	--	54

The Rams, having earned the right to represent the WAC in the final game of the season by virtue of a victory over San Diego State, joined BYU and Wyoming as the only three schools to have appeared in the Holiday Bowl in consecutive years since the bowl's inception. Colorado State returned to Jack Murphy Stadium, the site of its league-title clinching win over SDSU, for a date with Kansas State.

Kansas State entered the game ranked among the top 10 teams nationally after finishing in a tie for second in the Big Eight Conference. The teams were tied, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter before an interception and a partially blocked punt led to K-State's 19 second-quarter points.

The Rams were led offensively by freshman running back Damon Washington. Playing before a hometown crowd, Washington stung Kansas State's defense for 101 yards on just 10 carries, scoring one touchdown. Defensively, Colorado State cornerback Ray Jackson intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown on a play that was nullified by an official's inadvertent whistle.

Bowl MVPs - Moses Moreno, QB; Darran Hall, WR

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	7	7	14	7	--	35
Missouri	3	14	7	0	--	24

Colorado State took the first drive 85 yards in 13 plays for a touchdown. Wide receiver Darran Hall — a San Diego native — capped the drive, scoring on a 14-yard reverse. Hall returned a third quarter punt 85 yards for a touchdown, the longest such return in the bowl's history.

He and teammate Moses Moreno — another San Diego-area native — were the game's co-MVPs. Moreno, despite a sore foot injured during the game, completed 18-of-24 passes for 206 yards and two touchdowns.

The Rams limited Missouri to just 68 passing yards. Linebacker Willie Taylor and safety Myron Terry led the way with eight tackles apiece, while Eric Vaughn had seven stops.

One of the game's many highlights came with 10:44 to play and the Rams nursing a 28-24 lead. Reserve quarterback Ryan Eslinger, lined up as the holder in a field goal formation, faked that play and instead ran up the middle for a 23-yard touchdown to seal the victory.

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium | Memphis, Tenn.

Bowl MVPs - Rick Crowell, LB; Kevin McDougal, RB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	3	14	0	0	--	17
Southern Miss	13	7	3	0	--	23

The Liberty Bowl pitted the Rams, first-ever champions of the Mountain West Conference, against Conference USA champion Southern Mississippi.

The game featured a myriad of unusual plays. USM's first touchdown came on a fumble return. Following a field goal by the Rams' C.W. Hurst, USM scored on a blocked punt. Later in the first half, Rams wide receiver Frank Rice ran 2 yards on a reverse, a touchdown set up by CSU's blocked punt.

Colorado State's final touchdown of the game came on a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Matt Newton to H-Back Cory Woolstenhulme.

Bowl MVP - Cecil Sapp, RB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	3	13	3	3	--	22
Louisville	7	3	0	7	--	17

Colorado State entered the game having won a second straight Mountain West Conference title. Coach Sonny Lubick's Rams featured eight players — the most in school history — who were named first-team all-league.

Included in that group were quarterback Matt Newton and linebacker Rick Crowell, named the league's offensive and defensive players of the year, respectively. For the fourth time in seven seasons, Lubick was named the league's coach of the year.

Running back Cecil Sapp's 2-yard scoring run in the second quarter tied the game, and wide receiver Frank Rice's 16-yard reverse late in the first half put the Rams ahead to stay, 16-10. Sapp set a bowl and school bowl game record with 36 rushes, and his 160 yards. Colorado State was later voted 14th by the Associated Press, the highest final AP ranking in school history.

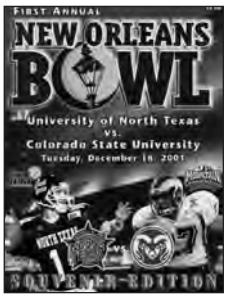
Bowl MVP - Justin Gallimore, DB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Colorado State	17	7	7	14	--	45
North Texas	0	14	0	6	--	20



Colorado State's made school history in 2001, playing in a third consecutive bowl game. CSU won the first-ever New Orleans Bowl played at the Louisiana Superdome, home to Super Bowl XXXVI just seven weeks later. And, the win marked the first time in school history that Colorado State had won back-to-back bowl games.

Senior receiver Brad Svoboda scored the first touchdown of his career, a 2-yard reverse, on the game's first drive, set up by a 56-yard catch-and-run play by Pete Rebstock on a pass from Bradlee Van Pelt.

Colorado State sealed the win in the third quarter when the game's MVP, Justin Gallimore, blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown to put the Rams up, 31-14.

Colorado State concluded a successful 2002 season with the program's third trip in four seasons to the Liberty Bowl as the Mountain West Conference champion.

Colorado State entered the game with a 10-3 record, the fourth time in Sonny Lubick's career at Colorado State the Rams had won 10 or more games in a season.

Jeff Babcock's 46-yard field goal in the third quarter put the Rams on the scoreboard and proved to be the only scoring for the Rams in the game.

Running back Cecil Sapp was the offensive star gaining 106 yards on the day, while linebacker Eric Pauly, defensive back David Vickers, linebacker Adam Wade and linebacker Drew Wood all finished in double figures in tackles.

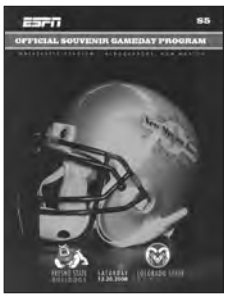
Fresno State	14	7	7	7	--	35



Gartrell Johnson sealed CSU's first bowl victory since 2001 on a 77-yard touchdown with 1:46 remaining. Johnson tallied 375 combined rushing and receiving yards, the most by any NCAA player ever in a bowl game.

The Rams took their first lead at 33-28 when Billy Farris threw a 69-yard TD to Rashaun Greer with seven minutes left. Fresno State cornerback Sharrod Davis took a big chance but whiffed on his attempt to bat the ball.

Fans came out of the stands as the final seconds ticked off, capping a strong first season for coach Steve Fairchild. Johnson was named most valuable offensive player and Tommie Hill was named Defensive Player of the Game.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Washington State	21	14	3	7	--	45
Colorado State	10	13	7	18	--	48

Down 45-30 with 4:17 left in the game and two timeouts left, QB Garrett Grayson led the Rams 72 yards down the field in just 1:25 and found freshman WR Jordon Vaden for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the score to 45-37 with 2:52 left in the game.

After using both timeouts, WSU converted with a nine-yard pass to seemingly put the nail in the coffin on the game with just over two minutes left. Shaquil Barrett stripped WSU RB Jeremiah Laufasa and pounced on the ball with 1:51 left in the game. CSU marched down the field and Bibbs scored his 31st touchdown of the season. The Rams then converted a 'Statue-of-Liberty' handoff to Donnell Alexander to tie the game at 45-45. On the next kickoff, SteveO Michel forced a fumble which Jasen Oden recovered. Jared Roberts sealed the victory with a 41-yard field goal as time expired. The Rams scored 18 points over the final 3 minutes.

Sam Boyd Stadium | Las Vegas, Nev.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Utah	21	3	7	14	--	45
Colorado State	10	0	0	0	--	10

The Rams finished one of the most successful seasons in school history with a record of 10-3, making them one of just five teams in program history to win at least 10 games.

Garrett Grayson finished the season with a school-record 4,006 passing yards - 4th-most in Mountain West history - and claimed CSU career passing records in every major category. His longest completion went 59 yards in the first quarter to All-American Rashard Higgins, who hauled in 7 receptions for 110 yards to record his 10th 100-yard receiving game of the year.

Indicative of the uncharacteristic offensive struggles, the unit that set a school record this season for success on third down was limited to 1-of-10 on third-down conversion opportunities.

Rashard Higgins became the school's all-time receiving yardage leader as Colorado State fell 28-23 in the inaugural NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Mike Bobo became the 1st CSU head coach to win seven regular season games in his first year.

After forcing a Nevada punt with 7:05 left, CSU drove 42 yards in eight plays to kick the go-ahead field goal, a 38-yard effort from Wyatt Bryan, with 3:40 remaining to put CSU up 23-22. Nevada, however, put together their longest drive since the 2nd quarter, covering 72 yards in eight plays for the game-winning touchdown.

CSU made one last threat, moving the ball from its own 12 to the Nevada 12-yard line in just 58 seconds, but the Rams could not get to the line of scrimmage for one last shot into the end zone before time ran out.

George Toomey

Second head coach in program history
1900-01 (One-plus Season)
1-3 (.250)
Alma mater: Baker, Denver ('98)
Toomey was well-liked but the Dibble scandal of 1901 ended his coaching career when he inadvertently played an ineligible man in the CU game, resigning after that contest.

Chester Caddas

15th head coach in program history
1981 (One Season)
0-6 (.000)
Alma mater: Murray State ('57)
Caddas, the Rams' defensive coordinator and a former head coach at Pacific in Stockton, Calif., replaced Arslanian as the interim head coach for the final six games of the 1981 season.

THE PLACE

As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

With more than 150 programs of study and 74 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 18:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart.

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

A leading land-grant institution

PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY

The Colorado State community is known for its welcoming atmosphere and supportive environment. The Principles of Community help us express what our community stands for and guide our expectations as we build the next generation of Rams.

Inclusion

We create and nurture inclusive environments and welcome, value and affirm all members of our community, including their various identities, skills, ideas, talents and contributions.

Integrity

We are accountable for our actions and will act ethically and honestly in all our interactions.

Respect

We honor the inherent dignity of all people within an environment where we are committed to freedom of expression, critical discourse, and the advancement of knowledge.

Service

We are responsible, individually and collectively, to give of our time, talents, and resources to promote the well-being of each other and the development of our local, regional, and global communities.

Social Justice

We have the right to be treated and the responsibility to treat others with fairness and equity, the duty to challenge prejudice, and to uphold the laws, policies and procedures that promote justice in all respects.

FORT COLLINS

The Choice City

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Located on the northern Front Range of the majestic Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 19th-largest metro area.

Fort Collins' 170,000-plus residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and includes the historic Old Town district with its restaurants, shops, and entertainment, all within walking distance of campus. The city also boasts a lively arts and cultural scene and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with more than 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 30-plus miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. The Lincoln Center and the University Center for the Arts, anchored in Fort Collins, are northern Colorado's cultural arts centers.

THINGS TO DO

A day in Fort Collins can be filled with things to do and see. Where else can you spend the morning admiring a zoo-full of fanciful metal sculptures, the afternoon touring a brewery, and the evening listening to live music in an open-air amphitheater?

With a thriving arts scene, burgeoning craft culture, an amazing mix of outdoor recreation opportunities and more, Fort Collins has something for everyone.

Craft Beer

The city of Fort Collins and the craft beer industry have a very unique relationship. Fort Collins produces 70 percent of the craft beer produced in the state of Colorado. Currently, the city is home to the most microbreweries in the state, over 20 craft breweries as a matter of fact, and each one has its own distinctive style. This includes New Belgium Brewing which is one of the world's largest operations as well as a leader in eco-friendly and sustainable business practices.

Outdoor Activities

Fort Collins rates very favorably on lists of towns that offer exceptional outdoor adventures. Whether you're in Fort Collins for just a few days or weeks at a time, it's nearly impossible to explore all of the trails, lakes, and streams in the surrounding foothills and mountains. Biking, fishing, hiking, golfing, riding horses, canoeing and camping, you name it, Fort Collins has you covered when it comes to outdoor recreation.

Fort Collins has big-city offerings with the amenities of a Colorado mountain town. All of the aforementioned activities including exploring open space are all encouraged on your visit to Fort Collins, which plays host to National Forests, the Cache la Poudre River and Horsetooth Reservoir. Outdoor attractions in and around the city will keep you busy for days!

DENVER, COLORADO

The Mile High City

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of more than 3 million, is less than an hour drive from Fort Collins. Denver is also home to over 61,000 Colorado State University alumni.

Four of its teams have competed for their respective world championships every season since 1996, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation.

Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall, a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheater (right), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, right), and the world's 6th-busiest airport, Denver International.

Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.

AMY PARSONS

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

3RD YEAR AT COLORADO STATE AS PRESIDENT

Amy Parsons is the 16th President of Colorado State University. Prior to being named CSU President in 2023, Parsons served for 17 years in various senior executive leadership roles at CSU and the CSU System. She combines her higher education background with private sector experience, as well as a background in law.

Parsons currently serves in leadership positions for local, state, and national organizations that span business, cultural, and athletics interests. This includes service on the NCAA Committee on Infractions, the U.S. Committee for Economic Development Board of Trustees, the Salazar Center for North American Conservation External Advisory Board, the Denver Sports Commission, the Alpine Bank Board of Directors, the Colorado Business Roundtable Board of Directors, the Mountain West Board of Directors, the Pac-12 Board of Directors, and the Denver Museum of Nature and Science Board of Trustees.

Parsons was executive vice chancellor of the CSU System from 2015-2020; vice president for university operations at CSU from 2009-2015; deputy general counsel and associate legal counsel at CSU Fort Collins from 2004-2009. As vice president of operations at CSU, she helped navigate through the fiscal challenges of the Great Recession, supported the first comprehensive salary equity survey to uncover and remedy gender-based inequities, and oversaw an historic physical transformation that included construction and renovation of state-of-the-art classroom buildings, parking structures, research facilities, and an on-campus stadium. She worked as a litigation attorney for Denver-firm Brownstein, Hyatt, & Farber (now Brownstein, Hyatt, Farber, Schreck) from 1999-2004.

During the 2024-2025 year, Parsons received the CU Law Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, was named Zeta Tau Alpha National Alumna of the Year, and was inducted into CSU's Inaugural Class Circle of Legends.

Parsons holds a bachelor's degree in political science from CSU and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Colorado. She was born in Colorado and grew up in Wyoming.

JOHN WEBER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

2ND YEAR AT COLORADO STATE | COLORADO STATE '91

John Weber, a 1991 graduate of Colorado State University, was named 21st Director of Athletics on May 30, 2024 after a three month stint as the interim.

Over Weber's first year leading his alma mater, Weber saw tremendous growth and set the athletic department and university on a new path. On September 12, 2024 Weber and President Amy Parsons announced the Rams' move to the Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2026. The move sets Colorado State up for great success across the board in the future.

CSU was just one of 25 programs in the nation with an NBA and NFL Draft pick in Nique Clifford (Sacramento Kings) and Tory Horton (Seattle Seahawks). The Rams were also one of 14 universities in the nation to qualify for the NCAA volleyball and men's tournament and go to a bowl game. The Snoop Dogg Arizona Bowl appearance by football was the program's first time in the postseason since 2017. Colorado State also had a national champion in the shot put for outdoor track and field with Mya Lesnar.

Away from competition, CSU did well in the classroom, securing the second-best semester grade (Fall 2024) in program history and finished the year with its 11th-straight semester recording a GPA higher than Colorado State's overall student population.

CSU saw an increase in revenue, attendance and merchandise sales during Weber's first year as the department continues to strive towards being the Most Loved, Most Watched and Most Innovative program in the West.

Weber's ties to CSU are significant, as a former student-athlete at CSU himself, Weber's post-graduate accomplishments and work on behalf of the university have included serving as the chairperson for the College of Business' Global Leadership Council (GLC), acting as an advisor to the department's RAM Life program for student-athlete development, and serving as the Executive Director of the Green and Gold Guard collective.

An accomplished businessman, Weber's engineering background led him through a successful career in the private sector, culminating in his role as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Long Range Systems. Weber retired from the role in 2020 and has served the university dutifully since.

The Athletics Advisory Council will assist Director of Athletes, John Weber and the Colorado State administration navigate the next generation of college athletics by providing input and guidance from a wide range of backgrounds.

About the Council Members

Sandy Barbour, Retired Director of Athletics at Penn State, Cal and Tulane
Sandy Barbour spent 40 years serving in college athletics before retiring in 2022 as the Director of Athletics for Penn State. The former student-athlete was the AD at Tulane, Cal and Penn State over her career. In 2020, Barbour was among the honorees on Sports Illustrated's "The Unrelenting" list of powerful, influential and outstanding women in sports. She was a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year honor. She served on the NCAA Football Oversight Committee, including being chair for two years. Barbour was also selected as one of the inaugural members of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee's Collegiate Sports Sustainability Think Tank.

Tom Hilbert, Retired Colorado State Volleyball Coach
Tom Hilbert built one of the best volleyball programs in the nation at Colorado State during his 26-year tenure. Hilbert won 637 matches, guided CSU to 23 NCAA Tournament appearances -- including six Sweet 16s -- and won 20 Mountain West titles. Hilbert also oversaw the development of 10 All-Americans while in Fort Collins. Now retired, he is a consultant for Collegiate Sports Solutions.

Ray Jackson, Vice President of Player Development, Denver Broncos
A Colorado State Hall of Fame inductee in 2011 after his illustrious career in Fort Collins, Jackson is currently the Vice President of Player Development for the Denver Broncos. Jackson played six seasons in the NFL before starting a career in the front office. His post-playing career began with a 10-year stint at the Pittsburgh Steelers as their director of player development. Jackson has been with the Broncos since March 2015. His role with the franchise is to spearhead and organize support programs to maximize players' potential and ability to achieve their goals on and off the field.

Dr. AJ Keaton, Assistant Professor, UMass
AJ Keaton, formerly known as AJ Newton, played basketball at Colorado State from 2013-15. Now she is an Assistant Professor at UMass in Amherst, Massachusetts. Keaton studies how race and gender equity shapes organization structures, norms and experiences mainly related to sports corporations. Keaton, who has been published often, earned her master's degree from Texas and a Ph. D in Philosophy from Connecticut.

Todd Marksberry, Former President and CEO of Canvas Credit Union
Todd Marksberry spent nine years as the CEO of Canvas Credit Union serving more than 300,000 members, 740 Canvas family members and Colorado communities. As the CEO, he led the credit union through a rebrand which made it one of the most recognizable brands in Colorado and credit unions nationally.

Dr. Rocci Trumper, Orthopedic & Spine Center of the Rockies
Dr. Rocci Trumper has worked at the Orthopedic Spine Center of the Rockies for almost 30 years as a specialist in knee sports medicine. He has focused exclusively on the evaluation and treatment of knee issues since 2002. He has performed more than 5,000 anterior cruciate ligament reconstructions in his career and has remained active in research and clinical outcomes through the Progressive Research in Sports Medicine (PRISM) Foundation. Dr. Trumper serves as a team physician for Colorado State Athletics, the Colorado Eagles hockey team and local high school teams.

Beth Walker, Dean of the College of Business, Colorado State University
Beth Walker has been at Colorado State since 2015 and is the Dean for the College of Business. Before joining CSU, Beth served as the Associate Dean, MBA Programs at the W. P. Carey School of Business, Arizona State University, where she was also the AT&T Professor of Services Marketing and Management. Beth is an award-winning researcher and teacher whose research has been widely published in leading marketing journals. She is a recipient of the prestigious Harold Maynard Award, recognizing the most significant contribution to marketing theory and practice by the Journal of Marketing. She also received the Richard Beckhard Prize for her contribution to the MIT Sloan Management Review. She is currently a member of the Board of Directors, Better Business Bureau (Northern Colorado), and served on the American Marketing Association, Board of Directors, as well as the President of American Marketing Association, Academic Division. She has consulted on strategy issues for State Farm Insurance, IBM Global Services, Yellow Roadway Corporation, Lucent Technologies, Honeywell, and AT&T.

Dr. Lise Youngblade, Dean of the College of Health and Human Sciences, Colorado State
Lise Youngblade has been at Colorado State since 2006 when she took over as the head of the Department of Human Development and Family Studies. In August of 2019 she was named the Dean of the College of Health and Human Sciences. She is an applied developmental scientist whose areas of specialization include child and adolescent socio-emotional development; access to healthcare for vulnerable youth; program evaluation; and analysis of developmental processes in educational and community contexts. Lise has served as both Associate Dean for Research, and Associate Dean for Strategic Initiatives, where she was responsible for leading specific initiatives that benefit the college.
